

Results

Nicole Ange Mukundwa

15

Out of 15 points

07:52

Time for this attempt

Your Answers:

1

1 / 1 point

Chris, a Year 1 BEL student at ALU, is developing his personal mission statement. He values "Integrity," "Community Service," and "Lifelong Learning." Chris wants to ensure his mission statement reflects these values while outlining his aspiration to impact his community positively.

Which of the following statements best captures Chris' core values and aspirations?

- ☐ To achieve success in community and in career.
- ☐ To influence the community and others by sharing successes in business.
- ☐ To excel in community and pursue a career that offers financial security.

☒ To empower his community through education and continuous self-improvement.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. This statement aligns with the lesson's guidance on creating mission statements that reflect personal values and aspirations while aiming for positive community impact.

2

1 / 1 point

Aisha has defined her personal mission as "To enhance mental health awareness and support for youth in underserved communities." She is now reviewing her daily activities to ensure they align with her mission. Which of the following activities should Aisha prioritize to stay aligned with her mission?

- ☐ Creating content for social media that promotes personal achievements.
- ☒ Volunteering weekly at a local youth center to provide mental health workshops.
- ☐ Spending her weekends attending social events.
- ☐ Focusing solely on her academic performance and neglecting her community involvement.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. According to the lesson, activities that directly support one's mission and values should be prioritized. This aligns perfectly with Aisha's mission.

3

1 / 1 point

Amani, a BEL student, has decided to focus his efforts on "Improving access to education for underprivileged youth in rural Rwanda." He wants to create a practical action plan to achieve this goal. Which step should Amani take first when creating his action plan?

- ☐ Jump into executing projects without a clear plan.
- ☐ Rely solely on personal networks for support and resources.
- ☐ Focus only on large-scale initiatives without considering smaller, immediate actions.

Identify specific, measurable goals related to improving educational access.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson underscores that clear, measurable goals are vital for an effective action plan, which aligns with Raj's mission.

4

1 / 1 point

Emily has been working towards her mission of "Promoting environmental sustainability in her community." After six months, she realizes that her initial goals were too ambitious, leading to frustration. What should Emily do to ensure she stays on track with her mission?

- ☐ Blame external factors for her lack of progress and continue with the same goals.
- ☐ Keep pushing forward without reflection, hoping things will improve.
- ☐ Abandon her mission due to initial setbacks and focus on easier tasks.

Reassess her goals and adjust them to be more realistic and achievable.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson emphasizes the importance of flexibility in goal-setting, allowing for adjustments to ensure continued progress and motivation.

5

1 / 1 point

Sophie is passionate about her mission to "Support women entrepreneurs in her community." She has launched several initiatives but feels unsure about their effectiveness. What should Sophie prioritize to enhance the impact of her initiatives?

- ☐ Spend time promoting her initiatives on social media rather than engaging with participants.
- ☐ Continue her initiatives without seeking feedback, believing her ideas are sufficient.
- ☐ Focus on expanding her initiatives to new communities without assessing current effectiveness.

- ☒ Gather data through feedback from participants and mentors to understand their experiences and needs.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson states that gathering feedback is essential for refining initiatives and ensuring they align with community needs.

6

1 / 1 point

Emma is in her final year of university, studying Psychology. She's unsure about which career path to pursue but knows she wants a job that aligns with her skills, interests, and values. Emma decides to start by evaluating her strengths and identifying industries that might suit her. What should be Emma's first step in creating a personalized job search strategy?

- ☐ Apply to every job opportunity that seems interesting, regardless of industry or role.
- ☐ Focus solely on building her LinkedIn profile before considering what jobs to apply for.
- ☐ Wait until she graduates to start planning her career path.

- ☒ Conduct a skills assessment to identify her strengths and areas of expertise.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson teaches that understanding your skills is crucial for developing a job search strategy tailored to roles where you can excel, ensuring a better fit and higher job satisfaction.

7

1 / 1 point

Mark, a final-year Software Engineering student, wants to increase his visibility to potential employers. He has created a LinkedIn profile but isn't sure how to make it stand out in a competitive job market. What should Mark do to enhance his online professional presence?

- ☐ Keep his profile private until he's ready to start applying for jobs.
- ☐ Simply list his educational background and previous job titles on his profile.
- ☐ Avoid joining industry-specific groups to keep his profile uncluttered.
- ☒  Customize his LinkedIn headline and summary to reflect his unique value proposition.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson emphasizes the importance of a compelling headline and summary that highlight your strengths and align with your career goals, making you more attractive to potential employers.

8

1 / 1 point

Jessica, a final-year Business Administration student, is trying to build connections in the finance industry. She has attended a few networking events but hasn't seen much success in landing any job leads. What should Jessica focus on to improve her networking efforts?

- ☐ Wait for others to approach her at networking events to initiate conversations.
- ☐ Only network with people who are already well-established in the finance industry.
- ☒  Follow up with the people she meets at networking events to build stronger relationships.
- ☐ Focus on online job boards rather than networking, as it's more convenient.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson teaches that effective networking involves maintaining and nurturing relationships through follow-ups, which can lead to valuable job leads and referrals.

9

1 / 1 point

Sarah, a recent graduate, is hesitant about networking because she views it as a transactional process. She feels uncomfortable reaching out to professionals, fearing that she has nothing valuable to offer. However, she realizes that expanding her professional network is crucial for her career growth. Sarah wants to change her mindset and approach networking more effectively. What should Sarah focus on to develop a networking mindset that aligns with effective professional relationship-building?

Cultivate an interest in learning from others and approach networking with curiosity.

Avoid networking events and focus solely on online networking to reduce discomfort.

Focus on what she can gain from others during networking events.

Only reach out to people who can directly offer her a job.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson encourages developing a genuine interest in building relationships and approaching networking with openness and curiosity, which fosters more meaningful and lasting connections.

10

1 / 1 point

David is preparing for an informational interview with a senior professional in his desired industry. He hopes to gain insights into the industry trends and career growth opportunities. David wants to make a strong impression and build a meaningful connection during the interview. What strategy should David prioritize to achieve his goals during the informational interview?

Research the professional's background and prepare thoughtful questions about industry challenges.

Focus on convincing the professional to refer him to a job during the interview.

Discuss his own achievements extensively to impress the professional.

Ask detailed questions about the professional's life to build rapport.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson emphasizes the importance of thorough preparation, including researching the professional's background and preparing insightful questions that demonstrate David's interest in the industry and his desire to learn.

11 1 / 1 point

Loise decides to conduct a self-audit of her digital footprint. After Googling her name, she finds several old social media posts from years ago that don't align with her current professional goals or values. What should Loise do to best manage her online presence?

- ☐ Create new social media profiles to start fresh and abandon her current accounts.
- ☐ Ignore the posts, as they are from years ago and won't affect her current professional goals.
- ☐ Change her privacy settings on all social media platforms to restrict who can see her posts.

☒ Review and possibly delete or request removal of these posts to better align her online presence with her current goals.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson emphasizes auditing your digital footprint and removing content that does not align with personal and professional goals.

12 1 / 1 point

During an online discussion for a group project, Tomisin writes in all caps to emphasize his point. His teammates feel uncomfortable with his communication style. What could Tomisin have done differently to maintain proper online etiquette?

☒ Use clear and concise language without resorting to all caps to make his point.

- ☐ Ignore the feedback from his teammates and continue communicating as he prefers.
- ☐ Use all caps since it effectively emphasizes his point in a digital conversation.
- ☐ Send a follow-up message explaining that he didn't intend to offend anyone.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson advises using clear and concise language while avoiding all caps to maintain respectful communication.

13 1 / 1 point

Innocent, an aspiring entrepreneur, is concerned about her online privacy and decides to review her social media settings. Which of the following actions should she prioritize to enhance her online security?

- ☐ Disable all notifications to reduce her online presence.
- ☐ Leave her privacy settings as they are, assuming they are secure by default.
- ☒ Enable Two-Factor Authentication (2FA) and regularly update her passwords.
- ☐ Share her passwords with a trusted friend in case she forgets them.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson highlights enabling 2FA and regularly updating passwords as key steps in protecting personal information and enhancing online security.

14 1 / 1 point

Sarah, a recent graduate, is building her online presence for job applications. Which strategies will enhance her professional persona?

Use a professional and consistent profile picture across platforms.

Update job titles and descriptions to align with her resume and career aspirations.

Add personal photos to show her fun side.

Share posts and articles that reflect her expertise and reflect her objectives.

15 1 / 1 point

During a virtual meeting for a class project, Lisa's background was noisy, and she often spoke over others. What should Lisa do to improve her virtual meeting etiquette?

Apologize after the meeting for the disruptions.

Ensure she is in a quiet environment and wait for her turn to speak during meetings or raise her hand whenever necessary.

Keep her microphone on throughout the meeting to ensure she doesn't miss anything.

Ignore the feedback since the meeting was informal.

Feedback

Based on your answer

Correct. The lesson outlines proper virtual meeting etiquette, including managing background noise and waiting for one's turn to speak.